Monthly Sacred Teaching: LOVE

For May we focus on the 7th Sacred teaching: LOVE. Love is, in many ways, what life is all about - love for ourselves, our family, our friends, our pets, our homes, and the land we live on. Love, and especially love of self, is important not only in reconciliation but in all aspects of our lives. The Eagle is the animal spirit that was chosen to represent this teaching of love because it is the one who could reach the highest in bringing vision to the seeker. The Eagle is truly respected and loved to the utmost degree and loved unconditionally. Love is considered the greatest and most powerful medicine.

Grade 1's Fairytale Day

Mrs. Charko from division office presented on internet and technology safety

Spring Time by Tammy Charko BA, BSW, RSW

INDIGO - CARING FOR THE CARERS

EACH ANCHOR NEEDS TO HAVE HIS/HER OWN NETWORK OF SUPPORT. THEY NEED SUPPORT IN ORDER TO AVOID "DROPPING THE STRINGS" IN THE "WEBS OF SUPPORT" OF THE CHILDREN/YOUTH THAT THEY ANCHOR.

~YOU CANNOT POUR FROM AN EMPTY CUP~

Every person who is an Anchor to a child or youth, needs to have their own Web of Support as well.

To continue to be a strong Anchor,
we can:

- know our limits
- share the load
- practice self-care
- spend time with our anchors
